We build websites and relationships. Experienced in Law. Focused on Marketing. The foundation for your success. A law firm is different from a medical practice, which is different from a hedge fund, which is different from a bakery. To truly know the Internet marketing needs of a law firm, you need someone with legal education and experience running the show. That's what LISI has at its roots. Founded by a lawyer in 1999, LISI has built a team that understands legal marketing in a way that non-lawyers cannot. And we've put that understanding into every website, marketing campaign, and advisory session we've done. For all types of law, for all types of lawyers. Hundreds of times.
